Paper 4 : Business Mathematics and Statistics

Course Objective
The objective of this course is to familiarize students with the applications of Mathematics and Statistical techniques in business decision making.

Course Learning Outcomes
After completing the course, the student shall be able to:

CO1 : acquire proficiency in using different mathematical tools (matrices, calculus and mathematics of finance) in solving real life business and economic problems.

CO2 : develop an understanding of the various averages and measures of dispersion to describe statistical data.

CO3 : understand the relationship between two variables through correlation and regression.

CO4 : understand the construction and application of index numbers to real life situations.

CO5 : understand the trends and tendencies over a period of time through time series analysis.

Course Contents
Part - A: Business Mathematics

Unit I:

(a) Matrices: Definition and types; Algebra of matrices; Applications of matrix operations to simple business and economic problems; Calculation of values of determinants up to third order; Finding inverse of a matrix through determinant method; Solution of system of linear equations up to three variables.

(b) Differential Calculus: Mathematical functions and their types – linear, quadratic, polynomial; Concepts of limits and continuity of a function; Concept and rules of differentiation; applications of differentiation - elasticity of demand and supply, Maxima and Minima of functions relating to cost, revenue and profit.

(c) Basic Mathematics of Finance: Simple and Compound interest (including continuous compounding); Rates of interest- nominal and effective and their inter-relationships; Compounding and discounting of a sum using different types of rates.

Part - B: Business Statistics

Unit II: Uni-variate Analysis

(a) Measures of Central Tendency: Arithmetic mean, Geometric mean, Harmonic mean- Properties and applications. Median and other Partition values (quartiles, deciles, percentiles), Mode.

(b) Measures of Dispersion: absolute and relative- Range, Quartile deviation, Mean deviation, Standard deviation and their coefficients; Properties of Standard deviation/Variance.

Unit III: Bi-variate Analysis

(a) Simple and Linear Correlation analysis: Meaning, Measurement (Karl Pearson’s co-efficient and Spearman’s Rank correlation) and Properties.

(b) Simple and Linear Regression Analysis: Regression equations and estimation; properties of Regression coefficients; Relationship between correlation and regression.

Unit IV: Index Numbers

Meaning and uses; Construction of index numbers: Aggregatives and average of relatives – simple and weighted; Tests of adequacy of index numbers; Computation and uses of Consumer Price Index (CPI).

Unit V: Time Series

Components; additive and multiplicative models; Trend analysis - moving averages and method of least squares (linear trend).

Course Objectives

Effective communication is an essential skill for success in any sphere of activity, from leadership responsibilities, teamwork, interviews, presentations, and inter-personal relations. This is a skill that needs to be taught in a systematic manner so that students imbibe the fundamentals of communication. The art of persuasive speaking and writing depends crucially on clarity of thought and contextual understanding expressed through appropriate vocabulary.

The ability to think critically is crucial for a good communicator and involves an understanding of the communicative process. Therefore, we need to study every stage of this process systematically in order to be much more effective at communicating successfully – in interviews, public speaking, letter writing, report writing, presentations, and inter-personal debates and conversations.

Learning Outcomes

- Students will master the art of persuasive speech and writing.
- Students will master the art of listening, reading, and analyzing. Students will spend the bulk of their time in class in practical exercises of reading and writing.
- Students will develop critical thinking skills.
- They will be introduced to established principles of academic reading and writing.

English ‘C’ - English Proficiency

Course Objectives

The English Proficiency course is intended for students who have had inadequate exposure to English and hence exhibit a very low level of proficiency in the language – difficulty in comprehending simple texts, limited vocabulary, a poor grasp of basic syntactical structures, and an inability to speak or write the language with confidence. The course that is spread over two semesters aims to redress these issues and aims to:

- enhance comprehension skills and enrich vocabulary through the reading of short and simple passages with suitable tasks built around these
- introduce simple syntactical structures and basic grammar to students through contextualized settings and ample practice exercises so that they can engage in short independent compositions
- introduce the sounds of the language and the essentials of English pronunciation to students in order to remove the inhibitions experienced by them while speaking English
- acquaint students with social formulae used to perform various everyday functions so that they can converse in English in simple situations

COURSE CONTENTS FOR SEMESTER I / II

Unit 1

Reading and Comprehension - I

Note: The unit names are indicative only and identify core language areas that are targeted through the course. The learning of various language skills needs to happen in an integrated fashion. It is therefore imperative that for every unit learners should work through the whole range of tasks in the prescribed readings irrespective of the title of the unit.

- Short and simple passages from the prescribed books
- These texts are to be used to enhance reading and comprehension skills of learners through various textual tasks such as reading aloud, sentence completion, true / false activities, re-ordering jumbled sentences, identifying central ideas, supplying alternative titles, attempting short comprehension questions, etc.
- Learners are encouraged to exploit the recommended books beyond the prescribed sections
- The end-semester examination will include the testing of the comprehension of an unseen passage of an equivalent level

Suggested Readings:

* A Foundation English Course for Undergraduates: Reader I, Delhi: Oxford University Press, 1991, pp. 1 - 36 Units 1 - 6

* Everyday English Delhi: Pearson, 2005, pp. 1 - 15 Units 1 - 3 & 21 - 31 Units 5 - 6

Unit 2

Learning about words

Students cultivate the habit of using a dictionary to learn about words - their spelling, pronunciation, meaning, grammatical forms, usage, etc. Students are introduced to word associations, the relationships between words – synonyms, antonyms, homonyms, homophones. They learn the use of prefixes and suffixes; commonly confused words; phrasal verbs and idioms.

The specific reading prescribed for this unit is to be used in conjunction with the vocabulary sections in the other recommended course texts, where activities like matching, sorting, and fill-in-the-blanks are used to engage the learners with words.

As a semester-long project the learners could be required to prepare 'mini-dictionaries' of their own, consisting of unfamiliar words they come across on a daily basis.

Suggested Readings:

* Everyday English Delhi: Pearson, 2005, pp. 36 - 43 Unit 8

Unit 3

Basic Grammar Rules - I

Subject-verb agreement; tenses; modals; articles; prepositions; conjunctions.

The prescribed reading for this unit is to be supplemented by the grammar tasks contained in the other recommended course books to provide intensive practice to learners.

Suggested Readings:

* Developing Language Skills I, Delhi: Manohar, 1997, pp. 186 - 195 & 206 - 209 Units 2 3 & 5 of the 'Grammar' section

Unit 4

Writing Skills - I

This section will introduce students to the structure of a paragraph; they will write a short guided composition of up to 100 words. These skills is to be practised through activities such as supplying topic sentences to given paragraphs, completing given paragraphs, expressing given facts or information from tables and expressing it in paragraphs, re-ordering jumbled sentences, and then re-writing them as connected paragraphs, using suitable linking devices etc.

Relevant sections from the other recommended course books are to be used for this purpose in addition to the prescribed reading for this section

Suggested Readings:

Everyday English, Delhi: Pearson, 2005, pp. 21 - 31 Units 5 - 6

A Foundation English Course for Undergraduates: Workbook I, Delhi: Oxford University Press, 1919, pp. 1 - 31 Units I - V

Unit 5 Conversing- I

Students will learn to listen to the sounds of English; the essentials of English pronunciation; conversational formulae used for greetings. After introducing themselves and others, students will learn correct modes of thanking, wishing well, apologizing, excusing oneself, asking for and giving information, making offers and requests, and giving orders.

In addition to the prescribed reading for this unit, the 'Speaking' sections at the end of the first five units of the Everyday English text should be used

Suggested Readings:

Developing Language Skills I, Delhi: Manohar, 1997, pp. 8 - 26 Units 1 - 5 of 'Oral Communication: Speech Patterns'

Note: The entire course is practical in nature The prescribed readings are rich in tasks and activities that aim at developing essential language skills. Working their way through these tasks will give the learners hands-on practice in the use of these skills.
